Director's Report -- 10/16/2025

Building Update

Erin Hooper

Jonathan Ross Kevin Yezhick

We continued the process of updating the lighting throughout the building from fluorescent to LED. Our average DTE bill for the twelve months prior to 10/1/2025 was $3,289. Our September DTE bill was $2,355. We are at 83% of the building updated and can expect the electricity bill to continue to decrease as we work with Diversified Electric to finish the update by the end of November. At this rate, the total capital investment in lighting will have paid for itself within two years.

More building updates are in the Building Committee report.

Staff Updates

Our Head of Adult Services, Kelly Hovinga, has been elected the Chair of the Adult Services Interest Group for TLN. She started her two-year tenure this month. The group had become inactive, so she is rebuilding from the ground up and her tenacity is sure to result in excellent outcomes.

Our in-service on Monday, October 13th went very well, with each department sharing a presentation on what they do that other departments may not be aware of. For the youth department, this took the form of a conversation between sock puppets. The adult services librarians, with assists from circulation, shifted fiction stacks to create a genre area for romance novels. This required many hours of planning, labeling, and physical labor, spearheaded largely by adult services librarian (and Romance Book Club facilitator) Emma Clemons with significant support from tech services specialist Sam Randolph. Their vision and willingness to work to see it through is to be commended.

Following this report is a job description for a new position, Circulation Specialist II. Finance Committee Report October 14, 2025

Attendees:

Amanda Hanlin Jonathan Ross

Drew Macaulay (prepared report)

Ongoing Finance-Related Activities

- A. Drew returned the signed engagement letter to our auditors and has begun the document gathering process, with the goal of having documents to Gabridge by 11/1 and being available for Gabridge to potentially be on-site at some point the week of 11/10.
- B. The portal for the annual state aid report and application is open. Drew did the Library of Michigan training and so far the site works well. Drew is coordinating with departments within the library to fill out the report and anticipates having it ready for submission the week of 11/3.

Review of September 2025 Financial Documents

- A. Not many surprises in the financial reporting for last month.
- B. Revenue is low, which is to be expected after bringing in 2.2M in revenue for August.
- C. Expenditures for salaries includes the 10/1/25 payroll. Three pay periods are in the reports.
- D. Expenditures for other non-book (748) includes the annual Kanopy (film/tv streaming) renewal for $4,500, and a higher-than anticipated Overdrive bill. Investigating that bill, we discovered that they have changed their invoicing structure and that this bill included titles we would have expected to see in the August and October bills. Because it covers a longer period of time, it is higher. The overall monthly costs are not higher.
- E. Expenditures for contractual services (818) include $8,000 for the three year renewal of the licenses and support of our security cameras. These cameras have been working well.
- F. Expenditures for special programs (885) includes a one time $857 charge for school outreach swag (bubbles, fake tattoos and water tumblers). This charge only comes up every couple of years as the swag lasts more than a year.
- G. Printing and publishing (900) includes publication of our fall newsletter.

Discussion regarding mid-year budget adjustments

The committee discussed some elements that will likely need adjustment to account for costs associated with strategic planning and the 2026 millage election.

FADL Building Committee | 10.01.2025 Meeting Minutes + Outcomes

Present: Director Drew Macaulay

Asst. Director Kricket Hoekstra Board Liaison Erin Hooper

Committee agreed to move forward with replacing the glycol conversion heating loop for radiant heat in the building. This repair would be in addition to front entrance coil unit repairs. Committee agrees these repairs need to be made before winter to avoid similar issues to last year's. Our contracted HVAC vendor has spent a lot of time investigating these issues and possible solutions. Drew was to discuss with the Finance Committee moving forward with their quote.

East vestibule doors' lock bars are corroded and need to be replaced; this and building shifting have caused the doors not to operate properly, resulting in a security and safety issue. Quotes have been received and committee agrees the doors need to be rehung and the lock bars replaced immediately. Kricket to move forward with vendor contract.

New landscape vendor relationship and performance is great. Ferndale Garden Club will be assigned and take over one of the building's beds. Landscape vendor will weed and mulch, and Garden Club will plant and maintain. Drew to make assignment.

Carpenter was scheduled to repair the vault/grate issue in the east vestibule and repair warped wood paneling in Program Room on the library's in-service day Oct. 13.

Five window cleaning service providers were engaged for quotes and two were scheduled to meet with Kricket and Drew to discuss.

Other discussions:

- Struggling to get response/quotes from security vendors. Erin still working on this.
- Electrical components of emergency up-lighting in atrium will need to be replaced in near future. Drew managing with electrician.

At the time the library was renovated 15+ years ago, the city of Ferndale, in its ownership of the building, provided facilities management services. When FADL became an independent entity, facilities management responsibility shifted to the library Director. As our building systems now enter a phase of active aging, repairs and replacements are far more frequent. The committee is doing its best to support, but we find it unsustainable for the Director to ultimately manage all of the issues, alongside other timely, important administrative and financial responsibilities. The Building Committee has agreed to explore hiring a part-time facilities manager. Drew was to discuss options with finance committee.

Next Building Committee meeting is scheduled for Nov. 5 at the library.
